

Dr. AJIT K. HUILGOL

MS, MNAMS, ARPS

CHIEF KIDNEY TRANSPLANT SURGEON

Dr. Ajit is one of India's most reputed kidney transplant surgeons having performed over 1600 transplants over the last 30 years.

Dr Ajit completed his MS in general surgery from the prestigious Post Graduate Institute Of Medical Education & Research, Chandigarh, from where he trained in transplant surgery. He had a brilliant undergraduate and postgraduate career, winning the Best Outgoing Graduate from Bangalore Medical College. He was also a medalist at the PGIMER, Chandigarh.

Dr Huilgol was part of the team that did the first successful kidney transplant in Karnataka in 1983. He has an extensive experience of over 1600 transplants. His special interests include transplanting kidneys with multiple arteries and with double ureters. He has the credit of establishing Transplant program in Lagos, Dhaka, Jalandhar, Punjab etc.

He is the founder member of Vascular Society of India, Peritoneal Dialysis Society of India to name a few. He has also chaired many prestigious conferences. He has published papers in Indian and International journals.

Dr Ajit is Chief Transplant Surgeon of the Kidney Transplant Unit at a leading super specialty hospital in Bangalore with a very active renal transplant programme that has drawn hundreds of patients from all over the world.