

Dr. Rajiv Karnik
M.D., DM (Cardiology)
Interventional Cardiologist

Academic Qualifications:

Dr Rajiv Karnik has the rare distinction of topping the Bombay University in M.B.B.S., M.D. as well as DM (Cardiology) examinations and secured six gold medals. He is the only DM cardiologist in Bombay University to create this record.

Awards:

He was awarded Commonwealth scholarship in the United Kingdom in 1986-87 where he had the privilege of learning and practicing Interventional Cardiology, Cardiac Arrhythmia management & heart Transplantation management. He had opportunity to refresh his abilities in heart rhythm management in Mayo Clinic, USA, University of Indianapolis, USA (1994) & Oklahoma University, USA and Cleveland Clinic, USA (2005)

Special Interest:

He was the first Cardiologist in the city of Bombay to implant ICD – Pacemaker device at Bombay Hospital. His special interest is in Coronary interventions, pacemaker & implantable defibrillator (ICD) device implantations as well as academic and clinical cardiology. He was working on the project of Telemedicine assisted by Arthur Anderson Co, during which he was awarded Rashtriya Ratna award in 1992.