

Dr. Paresh Doshi
Consultant Functional Neurosurgeon,

| | | |
|---|---|-------------|
| Surgery for Movement Disorder | Umea University, Sweden. Amsterdam University, Netherlands. Grenoble University, France. University of Vienna, Austria. | |
| General Neurosurgery | Newcastle General Hospital, Newcastle upon tyne, UK | 1995 - 1997 |
| Epilepsy Surgery: | Maudsley Hospital, London | 1994 - 1995 |
| Stereotactic & Functional Neurosurgery | National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery, London. | 1993 - 1994 |
| M.Ch. (Neurosurgery) | T. N. Medical College, Bombay | 1992 |
| M.S. (General Surgery) | Sheth K.M. School of P.G. Medicine & Research Ahmedabad | 1988 |

Dr. Paresh Doshi, functional Neurosurgeon, is one amongst the few neurosurgeons in the country. His expertise lies in surgeries for movement disorders and intractable epilepsies. His brief academic background is attached below:

In addition he has also obtained training for Spasticity under Prof. Marc Sindou in France.

Brief highlights of his career are as follows:

- First Indian Neurosurgeon to perform Deep Brain Stimulation surgery. Largest numbers (100) of Deep Brain Stimulation surgeries have been performed by us.
- Invited as CME speaker to talk on Functional Neurosurgery at the prestigious meetings in India and abroad. & Conducted workshops in stereotaxy and movement disorders at London, Mumbai & Indore. Also have several publications in the related field in prestigious peer reviewed journals.
- Only Asian in the International Task Force for Movement Disorders Surgery
- Over 400 Stereotactic surgeries, including 12 brainstem procedures.
- Performed more than 125 movement disorders surgeries, one of the largest in Asia and ranks very high among the leading centers of the world.
- Trustee of the Parkinson's Disease Foundation of India, lay society helping Parkinson's patients

- Also performed all varieties of Epilepsy surgery including Lobectomies, Awake craniotomies, corpus callosotomy and lesionectomy.